RBI announced new credit card regulations to improve digital security.

The regulatory update focused on customer verification and fraud control.

The central bank also discussed stronger consumer protection rules.